

Hunter Johnson BIO

Hunter Johnson is the Founder & CEO of two purpose-driven organisations.

Hunter leads The Man Cave, an emotional intelligence charity that has impacted the lives of 20,000 young men across Australia.

Hunter also leads STUFF™, a men's personal care brand that champions healthy masculinity.

Hunter also works as an Advisor to The Queen's Commonwealth Trust (QCT), a charity supporting young people throughout the Commonwealth alongside Prince Harry, the President of QCT.

Hunter's work has led him to speak around the world including presenting at the United Nations, Government House, Human Rights Commission, Sydney Opera House, Melbourne Town Hall, Graduation Ceremonies and various Universities. Hunter has been recognised as an Honouree for the 2021 Forbes 30 Under 30 Asia list, a Finalist for the 2020 Young Australian of the Year Awards (VIC), listed as one of Harper's Bazaar's "Visionary Men of 2019", and named a 2018 Queen's Young Leader by Her Majesty The Queen.
